PRE-SHOW ANNOUNCER

Ladies and gentlemen, welcome to “Rock of Ages.” Just a reminder that flash photography and recording devices are strictly prohibited. Unless of course you are really, really cute. Furthermore, all cell phones should be turned off, text messaging during the show makes you look like a jerk, and if you have one of those “blue tooth” things in your ear... please, come on. That is soooooo 2009. Oh yes, and lastly, in case of fire, please refrain from singing Def Leppard’s “Pyromania” as we couldn’t get the rights to any of their music. Thank you, and enjoy having your face melted.
